Modern protection for modern threats

Help protect your employees and your business with Iris Identity Protection brought to you by Aflac.

At Aflac, we know peace of mind is important to you and your employees. But we also know that identity theft can be devastating to a victim's daily life and a drain on employee productivity and morale.¹

In 2024, 1 in 5 people targeted by an imposter scam suffered a monetary loss.¹ Plus, 18 million Americans were victims of traditional identity fraud, losing $27 billion, and $20 billion was lost to identity fraud scams.² With the increased number of data breaches, imposter scams and phishing attacks, your employee's personal information could be compromised, impacting their productivity at work and their overall well-being.

Identity fraud is evolving. Make sure you have help protecting your employee's identity, so they can focus on what really matters. Give your employees access to Iris Identity Protection, brought to you by Aflac, today.

Providing Iris Identity Protection will help:

- Improve productivity in the workplace – Provide expert guidance and support when handling identity theft-related issues, so your employees can remain productive at work and maintain a safe online work environment.
- Attract quality employees – Send a clear message that you value your employee's protection by offering a comprehensive identity protection plan to help them recover effectively from today's threats.
- Promote overall well-being – Help ease the emotional, physical and financial burden associated with identity theft, showing you care about your employee's well-being.
